

New York Real Estate Mogul Elie Hirschfeld Is Co-Producing David Mamet's Oleanna

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 /PRNewswire/ -- Elie Hirschfeld of Hirschfeld Productions is co-producing "Oleanna" which officially opens on Broadway October 11th at the John Golden Theatre. The production, starring Bill Pullman and Julia Stiles, was written by Tony and Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright David Mamet and is directed by Tony Award winner Doug Hughes.

"I have been a long time fan of David Mamet and it is a pleasure to work with him on this project," said Elie Hirschfeld, co-producer of Oleanna. "I have always found theatre and Broadway to be fascinating and very much enjoy the work I do in this arena. Oleanna is an exciting story, and one that has audience members in heated debates by final curtain."

The John Golden Theatre is located at 252 West 45th Street (Between Broadway and 8th Avenue). For more information regarding Oleanna or to purchase tickets to show, visit <http://www.oleannaonbroadway.com/>.
